

Mapped, edited, and published by the Geological Survey
Control by USGS and USC&GS
Topography from aerial photographs by multiplex methods
Aerial photographs taken 1952. Field check 1955
Polyconic projection, 1927 North American datum
10,000-foot grid based on New Mexico coordinate system,
central zone and Colorado coordinate system, south zone
Dashed land lines indicate approximate locations
Unchecked elevations are shown in brown
1000-meter Universal Transverse Mercator grid ticks, zone 13, shown in blue

CONTOUR INTERVAL 40 FEET
NATIONAL GEODETIC VERTICAL DATUM OF 1929

THIS MAP COMPLIES WITH NATIONAL MAP ACCURACY STANDARDS
FOR SALE BY U.S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, DENVER, COLORADO 80225, OR RESTON, VIRGINIA 22092
A FOLDER DESCRIBING TOPOGRAPHIC MAPS AND SYMBOLS IS AVAILABLE ON REQUEST

LUMBERTON, N. MEX.-COLO.
N3645-W10645/15
1955
AMS 4657 IV—SERIES V781

USGS
Historical File
Topographic Division

JAN 6 1975

3200