This is a detailed topographic map of the Grant Pass area in Oregon. The map shows the Rogue River flowing through the center, with Grant Pass as a key geographical feature. Major peaks include Old Baldy, Fielder Mtn, and Gold Hill. The map is overlaid with a grid showing coordinates: R.6 W., R.5 W., R.4 W., R.3 W. (horizontal) and T.35 S., T.36 S., T.37 S., T.38 S., T.39 S., T.40 S., T.41 S. (vertical). The Oregon-California Boundary Line is clearly marked at the bottom. Numerous towns and locations are labeled, including Grant Pass, Gold Hill, and various smaller settlements like Beldy, Fielder, and Bolt. The map also shows various creeks, gulches, and mountain ranges like the Grant Pass Mountains and the Oregon-Cascade Mountains. The map is oriented with North at the top.
